PRELUDE

America the Beautiful

HYMN

Armed Forces Medley

America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bid'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed keep;
Oh hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!

From Aztec shore to Arctic zone,
To Europe and Far East.
The Flag is carried by our ships
In times of war and peace;
And never have we struck it yet
In spite of foemen's might,
Who cheered out crews and cheered again
For showing how to fight.

We're always ready for the call
We place our Trust in Thee.
Through surf and storm and howling gale,
High shall our purpose be.
"Semper Paratus" is our guide,
Our fame, our glory too,
To fight to save or fight and die! Aye!
Coast Guard we are for you!

Off we go into the wild blue wonder,
Climbing high into the sun;
Here they come, zooming to meet our thunder,

At 'em, boys,
Give 'er the gun!
Down we dive, spouting our flame from under,
Off on one helluva course!
We live in fame
Or go down in flame,
Hey! Nothing'll stop the U.S. Air Force!

Over hill, over dale as we hit the dusty trail,
And those caissons go rolling along.
In and out, hear them shout,
Counter march and right about,
And those caissons go rolling along.
Then it's
Hi! Hi! Hee!
In the Field Artillery,
Shout out your numbers loud and strong,
For where e'er you go,
You will always know
That those caissons go rolling along.

From the halls of Montezuma
To the shores of Tripoli,
We fight our country's battles
In the air, on land, and sea.
First to fight for right and freedom,
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title of United States Marine.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Daniel 12:1-3

A Reading from the Book of Daniel.

The Lord spoke to Daniel in a vision and said, "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever."

Lector: The Word of the Lord Response: Thanks be to God

PSALM 16

BCP pg 599

1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *
I have said to the Lord, "You are my Lord,
my good above all other."

- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *
upon those who are noble among the people.
- 3 But those who run after other gods * shall have their troubles multiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- 5 O Lord, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the Lord always before me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

THE SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

A Reading from the Book of Hebrews.

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Lector: The Word of the Lord Response: Thanks be to God

SEQUENCE HYMN #598

Lord Christ, when first Thou cam'st to

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 13:1-8

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!" Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down."

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

Response: Praise to you, Lord Christ

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

FORM II

BCP pg 385

Almighty God, giver of all good things:
We thank you for the natural majesty and beauty of this land.

They restore us, though we often destroy them.

Response: Heal us.

We thank you for the great resources of this nation. They make us rich, though we often exploit them.

Forgive us.

We thank you for the men and women who have made this country strong. They are models for us, though we often fall short of them.

Inspire us.

We thank you for the torch of liberty which has been lit in this land. It has drawn people from every nation, though we have often hidden from its light.

Enlighten us.

We thank you for the vision, generosity, and faithfulness of the founders of Emmanuel Church, and particularly Natalie Bayard Brown on this centennial celebration of the dedication of the Emmanuel Church apse murals and reredos on Armistice Day in 1921. We honor the service of the women and men in World War I, and the service of those in all wars, armed conflicts, and peacekeeping operations, and the sacrifices of their loved ones.

Make us grateful, faithful, generous, and kind.

We thank you for the faith we have inherited in all its rich variety. It sustains our life, though we have been faithless again and again.

Renew us.

O Judge of the nations, we remember before you with grateful hearts the men and women of our country who in the day of decision ventured much for the liberties we now enjoy.

We commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad.

Grant them grace, strength, and courage, and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be.

Almighty God, you have given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will.

Bless our land with responsible and accountable industry, sound learning and mutual understanding, and respect for every living thing.

Save us from violence, discord, confusion, and judging others without listening first. Bless those entrusted with the authority of government with wisdom and gentle strength.

That there may be justice and peace in communities and among nations.

In times of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness.

And in times of trouble, strengthen our trust in your way.

O God, whose Son commanded us to love our enemies: Lead them and us from prejudice to truth.

And deliver them and us from hatred, cruelty, and revenge; and in your good time enable us all to stand reconciled before you.

I ask your prayers for Jean, Janet, Diane (pronounced Dee-On), Brian, Jill, Ellie, Annie, Ash, Paula+, Patty, Carole, Scott, Joan, Joanne, Matthew, Donna, Bridget, Bill, Vanessa, Julie, Vanda, Natalie, Patrice, Alison, Jeanette, George, Posy, Danny, Wes, and Jackie Breen's son Christopher.

Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature. The melody is primarily composed of chords and some eighth-note figures. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Glo - ry, glo - ry, hal - le - lu - jah! Glo - ry, glo - ry, hal - le - lu - jah! His truth is march - ing on.

The second system continues the melody from the first system. It features a key change to one flat (B-flat) in the middle section. The lyrics are split across the two lines of the system.

The third system concludes the piece. The melody is mostly chordal. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Guest Musician: Gayane Darakyan

THIS WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTSA Message from Della:

We look forward to Sunday's three-part celebration, capped with a special COVID-safe Coffee Hour after the 10:00 service. We will celebrate Natalie Bayard Brown's gift of the back of the high altar and the surrounding murals in recognition of Armistice Day, November 13, 1921. Mrs. Brown, who also gave our historic Ralph Adams Cram church, dedicated the apse murals and reredos (church words for the walls and ceiling around the high altar and the back of the high altar) in recognition of Armistice Day, November 13, 1921, in gratitude for peace and for the men and women who served in World War I.

In addition to the celebration of the centennial of the dedication of Emmanuel's altar features on Sunday, we will honor our Veterans with special music and prayers. We invite all veterans of the armed services to wear their uniforms, or miniature medals on their civilian clothes, to the service. Emmanuel parishioner and worship leader, LT Roger Bullard, USN, will be preaching on his last Sunday with us before he moves closer to his family in Colorado.

Gayane Darakyan will be our guest musician Sunday. After our beautiful musical celebration of All Saints' Day last week, with special guest musicians Suzanna Laramee and Renee Lamontagne, we are very excited to welcome Randy Elkins, our new Director of Music and Events, on Monday. Randy will be restarting Emmanuel's adult choir with first rehearsal next week, inviting voices from around the community as we are able, with appropriate COVID precautions, to come back together and sing. The holistic benefits of choral singing are scientifically documented and well-known. Groups that breathe as one for choral singing form the community and connection that are basic to health and wellness. All are welcome! As beloved Southern author Flannery O'Connor famously said, 'The life you save may be your own!'

OUR PARISH

- At our 10:00 am service Sunday, November 14, we will celebrate the centennial of the gift of the ornamental back screen and murals surrounding the Emmanuel Church high altar, given by Emmanuel founder Natalie Bayard Brown in thanksgiving for peace, and gratitude to the men and women who served in WWI, on Armistice Day, November 13, 1921.

- We will also honor all veterans on the occasion of Veterans Day 2021 on Sunday, November 14 with prayers and special music. Veterans are invited to wear their uniforms or miniature medals on civilian clothing. LT Roger Bullard, USN, our parishioner and worship leader, will be preaching.
- We will honor Roger's last Sunday with us before his move to Colorado to be closer to family with a special COVID-safe coffee hour after the 10:00 service. We invite all fully vaccinated persons to attend this special Coffee Hour, doing your very best to stay 6 feet apart while you are eating and drinking with your masks off. Imagine leaving space between you for six dancing penguins!
- Brass Polishing Day - On Monday, November 22nd at 6:30pm we will be cleaning and polishing the brass items in and around the altar for the upcoming holidays. If you would like to volunteer to help clean, please call either the office (401-847-0675) or Bob Gaines (401-771-0675).
- Community Choir rehearsal - Come one, come all! With the return of Randy Elkins quickly approaching, he'd like to host a choir rehearsal on Wednesday 17th at 7pm in the church to prepare for the holiday season. If you are interested in joining the choir please contact Deb Venancio at 401-480-5541.
- Outreach on the move: We have reestablished our Outreach Committee to champion our participation in community service initiatives beyond our immediate Emmanuel family. Already volunteers to participate on the committee have stepped up to the ministry. If loving your neighbor is among your passions, won't you join us? If so or just to ask questions please call, text, or email Dave Monroe at 401-225-5494 or davidrmonroe@cox.net.
- Pledge Campaign: If you have not yet made your pledge, the vestry will be reaching out to you in the next two weeks. Please do join our congregation in supporting Emmanuel.

If you can support our ministries from afar, we also offer online pledging. Access the Pledge Letter & Pledge card here. Pledges help us budget our ministry work. Please email your pledge card to bookkeeper2@emmanuelnewport.org or mail to the Office.

- Please let us know any announcements you have for the congregation! Call Sarah Ricks, Parish Administrator, at 401-847-0675, or email her at admin@emmanuelnewport.org by Monday each week.
- Prayer requests with first names only may be submitted to Audrey Bennett at ash244@icloud.com prior to 3 PM on Monday each week. Please indicate if your prayer request is Long Term, Short Term (30 days), or Urgent. If urgent, Audrey will forward to our 12 Intercessors right away.

Our Community

- Clothing Donations - November is our winter socks campaign for Housing Hotline. We request new winter socks of all sizes. If you have any questions please contact Lil Hargrove.
- MLK Donations - To meet the needs of Latino families, we would like to kindly highlight some shelf-stable items that the MLK Center are in need of:
 - Tortillas
 - Sofrito
 - Masa
 - Chiles
 - Sazon Seasoning Mix (con Azafran)
 - Caldo de Tomate
 - Adobo All-Purpose Seasoning

We also ask for new toys, unwrapped, for the approaching holidays. The MLK Center is proud to serve over 800 children this year, and they can't do it without help from Emmanuel.

- Music Events at Trinity Church this Fall - Trinity Church will be hosting a number of small concerts this upcoming fall. You can find out more information at their website.
